Since the initial release of Photoshop in 1987, the ability for graphic artists to transform Photoshop into an ink executioner is now even more powerful. Imagine telling your friendly neighborhood barista that you want a “you know, a la mode” latte, and you want him to make it according to your exact coffee order with just a few taps of your iPhone. Now it's possible - and you don't have to leave Photoshop to do it. Today, Adobe and Starbucks have announced a partnership that will allow people to order a customized nitrogen-infused latte in the cloud with a quick tap on their iPhone, iPad or Android device. The partnership leverages the Starbucks Digital Network, allowing people to use their mobile phones to send orders to authorized Starbucks stores, and then add customized orders to their desktop version of Adobe Photoshop Elements. Powerful new features in Elements allow you to apply sophisticated editing effects to your photos with a single click.
